

Sixty percent of this role is making spend explain itself; forty is running the AI that does the explaining. I have shipped both — an attribution argument over a $10M book, and a production multi-model stack with live data connections underneath it.

Elio Intelligence Suite

Founder & AI engineer · elioai.app

- Built and operate a multi-model platform on Cloud Run — Claude, Gemini, GPT, Grok, and Llama behind task-fit routing, Vertex AI Search retrieval, and live data connections. Structurally the same object as a 25-skill Claude graph wired to 15 systems.
- Shipped a grounded SEM forecaster that ran 21 scenarios against $2.4M of live pipeline, so the seller walked in with spend-to-stage math instead of a dashboard.
- Own the unglamorous half: 8–10 API keys, 3–4 GCP service accounts, scheduled agent runs, and the pager when a connection drifts.

Audacy

Digital Sales Manager · $10M+ digital book

- Carried the book and the attribution argument behind it. Reallocated Google, Meta, OTT/CTV, and programmatic against marginal ROAS until Denver held a top-3 national rank out of a #19-sized market.
- Wrote the bidding and attribution framework the QBRs ran on — last-click versus assisted, incrementality, which channel actually moved buying stage — then taught 10 AE desks to defend it without me in the room.
- 130% YoY paid-search conversion growth and a 13% new-user lift on a flagship financial-services account. The deliverable was the readout: what happened, why, what we cut Monday.
